

The Defense of Jisr Al Doreaa
Practical Exercise 7 “Conduct a Raid”
(Instructor Notes)

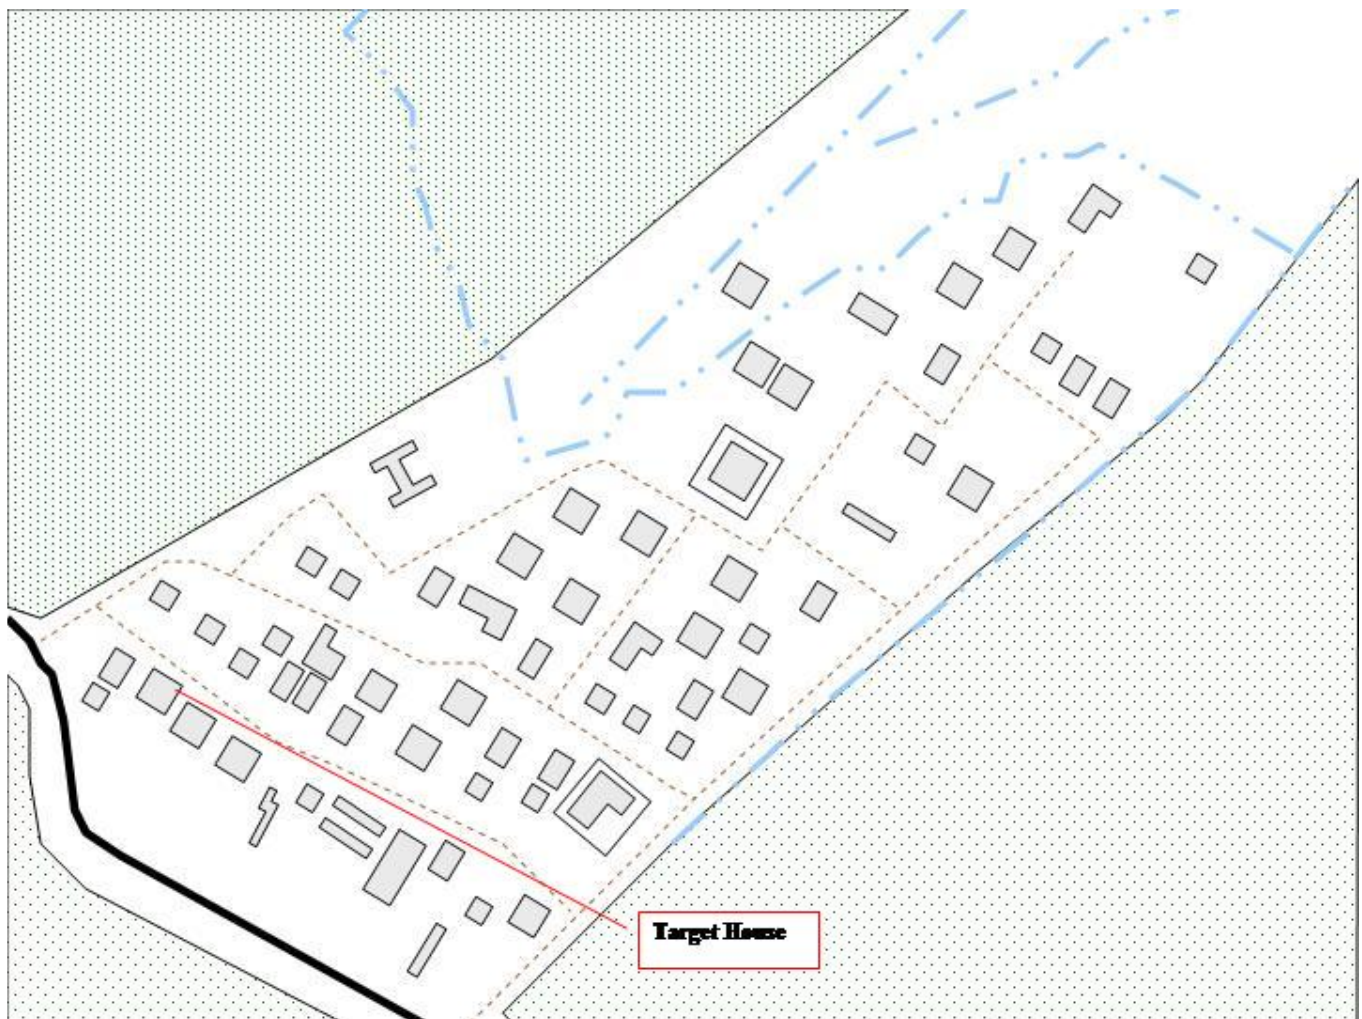

Practical Exercise Guidance

In his fifth dream 2LT Connors conducts a successful raid on an insurgent cell in Al Doreaa. His success was largely due to tactical patience and good intelligence gathering. Conducting a raid or cordon and search is a complicated task with numerous planning concerns. How would you have conducted the raid?

Task: Create and brief a raid operations order

Conditions: Given the same mission and troops that were available to 2LT Connors.

Standards: Write and brief a five paragraph OPORD for the mission. Include graphics with direct fire control measures, a troop to task matrix with COP security personnel and special teams identified.

Talking Points

1. Did the student issue a detailed five paragraph OPORD?
2. Has the student created an urban direct fire control system using graphic control measures?

3. Has the student divided his forces into special teams such as:

- a. Support by Fire or Outer cordon
- b. Inner cordon
- c. Breach
- d. Assault
- e. Aid and Litter
- f. Tactical Site Exploitation
- g. Detainee

4. Has the student addressed his consequence management plan?

- a. IO flyers
- b. Scheduled meetings with local leadership to explain the action
- c. Follow up HA operations
